WEEKLY ACTIVITIES AND STATUS REPORT FOR THE DD/ICS--2 October 1984CIPC Organizational Activities

- The VC/CIPC made a courtesy call on [ ] last Friday. During the meeting, [ ] was provided an advance copy of General Faurer's response to our concept paper on the Combat Intelligence Analysis Issue. Although, General Faurer did make some changes to the concept paper it remains essentially the same as we originally drafted it (copy attached).
- Additionally, General Faurer pledges his support to the Task Force's efforts. He does suggest, however, that the Task Force review the 1978 joint SECDEF/DCI "Report on the National/Tactical Interface, before they begin this work.
- The NFIC has concurred on the Defensive Ballistic Missile Study--with the exception of [ ] formal approval. [ ] has been out of town for the past few weeks. However, DIA experts reportedly have no problem with the study.
- We are drafting a forwarding memorandum from you to the DCI recommending that he approve the study for implementation.
- We have received concurrence on the CBW Study from all but three of the CIPC members-- [ ] we expect State and DIA to response within a day or so. However, Bob Gates reportedly still does not support the study, but [ ] is scheduled to meet with him and discuss the study within a couple of days. We will subsequently receive CIA's response to the study.
- We met with [ ] Chairman, Terrorism Working Group, on 2 October to discuss his reaction to the strawman study and review alternatives for completing the study within the next two months.
- [ ] reaction to the strawman is:
- In reading the study, the task is not clear.

- He does not understand what the study is trying to say.
- The recommendations do not focus on the problems nor are they supported by the text.
- The intelligence gaps/shortfalls are not defined.
- There are no recommended solutions.
- Finally, [ ] thinks the strawman has been overtaken by events. 25X1
- [ ] acknowledges that a study needs to be done, however, we should 25X1 rethink what we want in the study. Additionally, [ ] recommended 25X1 that a small group of experts be convened, including the NIO/CT and ascertain what kind of study would be most useful for the DCI and the Intelligence Community.
- Additionally, [ ] will be attending a Terrorism Seminar, convened 25X1 for Ambassador Okley, next week and will discuss the study and its dimension with selected attendees from the Intelligence Community.
- [ ] 25X1
- With regard to production timelines, [ ] proposed the following: 25X1
  - 9 October: Send memorandum to working group members announcing the task and solicit their comments on what needs to be done and addressed.
  - 17 October: Working group inputs due.
  - 19 October: Convene working group to discuss and review their inputs.
  - 22 October: Chairman, Terrorism Working Group provide CIPC members five-minute overview status report on the study.
  - 22 October: Convene study drafting group--CIPC staff to provide office space and administrative support.
  - 31 October: First study draft due; forward to working group for for review and comments.

- 2 November: Convene working group to discuss/comment on first draft.
- 7 November: Final working group submission due.
- Mid-November: Study drafting group complete final draft for CIPC review and approval.
- In conclusion, [ ] stated that he had talked with [ ] and [ ] about this study effort. Both see this effort as very important and are pleased that we requested that State provide the Chairman. [ ] has their support and he was directed by them to move out on the study in a timely manner.
- We instructed [ ] to proceed as outlined above.
